EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Michael J. D'Aurelio (Reg. No. 40,977) on June 5, 2006.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, line 11, "the events of the event sequence" should be -- a number of events in the event sequence --;

Claim 1, line 12, "the entry" should be -- an entry --;

Claim 3, lines 3-4, "a network page" should be -- the network page --;

Claim 6, lines 2-3, "a network page" should be -- the network page --;

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-6, 8-19, 21-24, 26 and 27 are allowed. These claims will be renumbered as 1-24.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims define an automated data access method that corresponds to the disclosed drawings as depicted in figs. 1-4. The claims distinguish over the prior art in that the method includes manipulating a user interface component during the identifying of the event sequence to indicate that the content item successfully accessed is to be included in the publication that is to be printed. The features identified, in combination with other claim limitations, are neither suggested nor discussed by the prior art of record.

The most relevant prior art Silva et al. (US 2002/0054090), as noted in the Final Rejection dated 1/13/06, teaches the method for identifying a content item from a network page and an event sequence associated with the content item that is employed to access the content item. However, Silva does not teach the applicant's claimed combination of the identifying and manipulating steps.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
